INSTRUCTIONS

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREVIOUS FILERS

Carefully review any preprinted information to ensure it is complete and correct. Make any necessary changes or additions to the form in a legible manner. Answer each of the questions and sign the form. If you have any questions, contact your county assessor.

WHO MAY FILE. Any individual who, on January 1, is an owner-occupant of a residence, including every person who has previously been granted a homestead exemption may file a Form 458. An owner-occupant means: (1) The owner of record; (2) The occupant purchasing and in possession of a homestead under a land contract; (3) One of the joint tenants, or tenants in common; or (4) A beneficiary of a trust. The trustee must be the record title owner and the beneficiary-occupant, and pursuant to the terms of the trust, has: (1) The specific right to occupy the homestead; or (2) The right to amend or revoke the trust to obtain power of occupancy or legal title; or (3) The power to withdraw the homestead from the trust and place the record title in his or her name. A homestead exemption is available to U.S. citizens or qualified aliens. Check the applicable box and indicate your alien number if you are a qualified alien. The Nebraska Homestead Exemption Information Guide is available at www.revenue.ne.gov/PAD, by clicking on the "Homestead Exemption" button.

WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE. This form must be completed, signed, and filed after February 1 and by June 30 with your county assessor. Failure to timely file is a waiver of the homestead exemption.

OWNERSHIP AND OCCUPANCY REQUIREMENTS. The person claiming a homestead exemption must own and occupy the residence (or mobile home), from January 1 through August 15. If not owned and occupied during this time period, the homestead exemption will be disallowed for the entire year. If you move from one homestead to another in Nebraska, contact your county assessor as soon as possible.

FILING STATUS. "Married" includes all persons who filed an income tax return as married, filing jointly or married, filing separately for the prior year; or who would have filed as married if a return was required. "Closely-related" includes an owner-occupant who is a brother, sister, or parent to another owner-occupant of the homestead. All others must file as single.

INCOME REQUIREMENT. A Nebraska Schedule I – Income Statement must be attached, except when exemption category 5 is claimed. See Nebraska Schedule I instructions for income definition and levels. Failure to file the Nebraska Schedule I is a waiver of the homestead exemption.

HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION CATEGORIES. People in the following categories may be considered for a homestead exemption: (1) Individuals; (2) Veterans; (3) Disabled Individuals; (4) Disabled Veterans; and (5) Paraplegic Veterans.

- (1) Individuals who are 65 years of age or older before January 1 of the year for which application is made are eligible.
- (2) Veterans who served on active duty during a recognized war of the U.S. and who are totally disabled by a non-service connected accident or illness are eligible (annual disability certification required).
- (3) Disabled individuals who have a permanent physical disability and who have lost all mobility that precludes the ability to walk without the regular use of a mechanical aid or prosthesis, or individuals who have undergone amputation of both arms above the elbow, or who have a permanent partial disability of both arms in excess of 75% are eligible.

A Physician's Certification of Disability for Homestead Exemption, Form 458B, or certification from the Department of Veterans Affairs affirming the homeowner's disability must be attached to the application for homestead exemption categories 2 and 3. If a disabled individual listed in homestead exemption category 3 was granted a valid homestead exemption in the previous year, and no change in homestead exemption status occurred, then a physician's statement is not usually required; however, the county assessor or Tax Commissioner may request a current Form 458B to verify the disability.

- (4) Disabled Veterans are eligible if they served on active duty during a recognized war of the U.S. and are drawing compensation from the Department of Veterans Affairs due to: (a) 100% disability and they are not eligible for total exemption as a paraplegic; (b) The service-connected death of an active duty servicemember leaving an unremarried widow(er) of this veteran; (c) The death of an active duty servicemember during a recognized war leaving an unremarried widow(er); or (d) The death of any veteran who died because of a service-connected disability leaving an unremarried widow(er).

Certification from the Department of Veterans Affairs is required. If a disabled veteran or widow(er) was granted a valid homestead exemption in the previous year, and no change in homestead exemption status occurred, then a certification is not usually required; however, the county assessor or Tax Commissioner may request a current certification to verify the disability.

- (5) Paraplegic Veterans are eligible for the total actual value of a homestead substantially contributed to by the Department of Veterans Affairs which is exempt from taxation. This includes: (a) Veterans who are paralyzed in both legs and cannot walk without the aid of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair; (b) Veterans who have undergone amputation of both lower extremities or one lower and one upper extremity and cannot walk without the aid of braces, crutches, canes, a wheelchair, or artificial limbs, or both upper extremities; and (c) The unremarried widow(er) of a veteran listed in (a) or (b) above.

Certification from the Department of Veterans Affairs is required.

LIMITATIONS. The homestead exemption amount is limited. Homesteads with an assessed value exceeding the statutory maximum value will be reduced or disallowed. A percentage of the maximum exempt value of the homestead will be determined in accordance with the income tables shown on Nebraska Schedule I – Income Statement Instructions. Contact your county assessor for details.

LEGAL DESCRIPTION OF HOMESTEAD. The legal description of the homestead may be found on your deed, your tax receipts, or may be obtained from your county assessor or some county websites. If the homestead being exempted is a mobile home or residence on leased land, provide a physical description of the property including model, size, serial number, or other identifying information.

APPEAL PROCEDURES. If the county assessor rejects an application for homestead exemption, the applicant may request a hearing with the county board of equalization by filing an appeal with the county clerk. If the rejection, or a reduction of the amount of exemption, is made by the Tax Commissioner, the appeal must be filed with the Tax Commissioner. All appeals must be in writing and must be filed within 30 days from receipt of the notice from the county assessor or the Tax Commissioner. Contact your county assessor for assistance.
